3 to: prohibiting the denial, revocation, suspension or limitation of certain
4 licenses based on failure of licensees or applicants to provide social security
5 numbers.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill prohibits a state agency that issues a license that authorizes a person to engage in any occupational, professional, commercial or recreational activity from revoking, suspending or otherwise limiting the license based solely on the licensee's failure to provide his or her social security number to the state agency. The bill also prohibits such a state agency from denying an application for issuance, renewal or reinstatement of such a license based solely on an applicant's failure to provide his or her social security number to the state agency. The prohibitions in the bill also apply to marriage licenses issued by county clerks and to any driver's license or identification card issued by the department of transportation.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

MEMORANDUM

To: All attorneys
From: RJM
Subject: Repeal of social security number requirements

On February 9, 1999, Rep. Schneider requested a bill to repeal the provisions of 1997 Acts 191 and 237 that require a person to disclose his or her social security number (SSN). Provisions that require an entity to disclose its federal taxpayer identification number should not be repealed. At this time, provisions relating to inter-agency disclosure of a SSN should also remain. ~~The bill should take effect on the first day of the 6th month after publication.~~

I am coordinating the drafting of this request. I have started a preliminary draft that you will find attached. The computer drafting folder is located in LRB hold. As you can make time, please review those portions of the draft that deal with your subject areas to ensure that the treated statutes work within the context of your chapters. If you discover that additional statutes must be treated, please retrieve the computer drafting folder from hold and complete an insert so that I am aware of the addition. Please complete a cross-reference and sections affected check for each statute that you treat. I have already completed a cross-reference check for the attached draft and will complete a sections affected check of the attached draft when every attorney has completed this review.

In addition, please prepare an insert for any necessary initial applicability provisions for the treatment of your chapters. Although they will not fit exactly, it may be helpful to use the initial applicability provisions contained in 1997 Acts 191 and 237 as a guide.

Please forward the computer drafting folder back to LRB hold when you complete your review and include a copy of any inserts you prepare when you pass this packet on to another attorney.

I have also begun a drafter's note that you will find attached and in the computer drafting folder. Please add any issues particular to your subject area to the drafter's note and please include your name after the portions that you add.

If you have any questions or suggestions, please let me know. Thanks.

Note: s. 49.22 disclosure will be allowed for individual SSN's collected before this act's effective date. After eff. date, no collection of individual SSN's just organizations' taxpayer ID# (but since organizations aren't ordered to pay family support (?) with s. 49.22, disclosure is less relevant but must still be reported)

INSERT ANALYSIS

Currently

Under current law, any record relating to a judgment of divorce, support order or paternity determination generally must contain the social security number (SSN) of each individual to whom the record relates. In addition, current law requires an individual to include his or her SSN on any application that the person makes to the state for a professional, drivers, occupational, recreational or marriage license. The applicable state agency must deny any application that does not contain the applicant's SSN. Upon receiving the SSN, the applicable state agency discloses the SSN to the department of workforce development (DWD) so that DWD may determine, among other things, whether the individual is delinquent in the payment of child support. If the individual is delinquent, the applicable agency must deny the application,

Currently

The applicable state agency also discloses the SSN to the department of revenue (DOR) so that DOR may determine whether the individual is delinquent in the payment of certain taxes, If the individual is delinquent, the applicable agency must deny the application.

With certain limited exaepctions, this bill deletes the provisions in current law that require an applicant for a professional, drivers, occupational, recreational or marriage license to provide his or her SSN as a condition of receiving the license. This bill also deletes the provisions that require SSNs to be included on certain records relating to judgments of divorce, support orders or paternity determinations.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

DRAFTER'S NOTE FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-2183/PTD I dn
RJM.....
cm 4

1. ~~Attached is a preliminary draft for your review.~~ You have requested a repeal of the provisions created in 1997 Acts 191 and 237 ~~requiring~~ a person to disclose his or her social security number (SSN). Please note that, under the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA), each state must require a person's SSN to be recorded on any application for a professional, driver's, occupational, recreational or marriage license, on any records relating to a judgment of divorce, support order or paternity determination and on every death certificate. A state that fails to enact these requirements risks losing federal funding for child and spousal support enforcement. Wisconsin passed 1997 Act 191 to comply with the PRWORA. ~~If enacted, this draft would jeopardize Wisconsin's receipt of federal funds.~~

2. ~~The following statutes contained SSN requirements before 1997 Acts 191 and 237 became effective. Please review these statutes and let me know if you intend to treat them in this draft.~~ ss. 36.11(35), 73.03(38), 101.87(1), 103.35(3m)(a), 214.245(1), 343.14(2)(b), 565.30(5m), 767.085(1)(a) and 769.311(1), stats. 118.169, 118.19(10)(d) 2.

3. I did not repeal the SSN language in the following statutes, even though these statutes were treated in 1997 Act 191. None of these statutes requires a person to provide a SSN; rather they regard disclosure of a SSN between agencies, authorities or entities. ~~Please review these statutes and let me know if you intend to repeal them in this draft.~~ ss. 69.20(3)(f), 49.853(3)(a), (b), and (4)(a), 69.17, 343.14(2j)(b), 563.28(2) and 563.285(2)(a), stats. 73.0301(2)(c).

4. This draft repeals SSN requirements that specifically apply to a person involved in a divorce, paternity or child support proceeding. The various agencies that enforce support orders may have difficulty tracking support payments without using a person's SSN. In addition, it is unclear how the department of workforce development will be able to maintain the statewide support lien docket under s. 49.854(2)(b), stats., without using a person's SSN. Please let me know if you desire any changes to these provisions.

1. You have requested a repeal of the provisions created in 1997 Acts 191 and 237 that generally require a person to disclose his or her social security number (SSN) to certain governmental agencies. Please note that, under the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA), each state must require a person's SSN to be recorded on any application for a professional, driver's, occupational, recreational or marriage license, on any records relating to a judgment of divorce, support order or paternity determination and on every death certificate. A state that fails to enact these requirements risks losing federal funding for child and spousal support enforcement. Wisconsin passed 1997 Act 191 to comply with the PRWORA. If enacted, this draft would jeopardize Wisconsin's receipt of federal funds.

2. This bill does not treat the following statutes, which contained SSN provisions before 1997 Acts 191 and 237 became effective: ss. 36.11 (35), 73.03 (38), 73.0301 (2) (c), 101.87 (1), 103.35 (3m) (a), 118.169, 118.19 (10) (d) 2., 214.245 (1), 343.14 (2) (b), 565.30 (5m), 767.085 (1) (a) and 769.311 (1), stats.

3. I did not repeal the SSN language in the following statutes, even though these statutes were treated in 1997 Act 191. None of these statutes requires a person to provide a SSN; rather they regard disclosure of a SSN between agencies, authorities or other entities: ss. 69.20 (3) (f), 49.853 (3) (a), (b), and (4) (a), 69.17, 343.14 (2j) (b), 563.28 (2) and 563.285 (2) (a), stats.

4. This draft repeals SSN requirements that specifically apply to a person involved in a divorce, paternity or child support proceeding. The various agencies that enforce support orders may have difficulty tracking support payments without using a person's SSN. In addition, it is unclear how the department of workforce development will be able to maintain the statewide support lien docket under s. 49.854 (2) (b), stats., without using a person's SSN. Please let me know if you desire any changes to these provisions.

MEMORANDUM

February 10, 2000

TO: Marc E. Shovers
Legislative Reference Bureau

FROM: Yeang-Eng Braun YEB
Department of Revenue

SUBJECT: Technical Memorandum on Assembly Bill 617 - Limit Social Security Number Requirement on Occupational and Other License Applications

The bill would make it impossible for the Department of Revenue to make computer matches of social security numbers from occupational license applications with social security numbers of delinquent taxpayers. These matches permit the Department to collect approximately $1 million annually in delinquent taxes. Computer matches could be made using the names of occupational license applicants and delinquent taxpayers, but substantial manual review of matches would be required.

If the author wishes to provide funding for manual review needed to permit computer matches using names, appropriation language could be developed and costs allocated in the following manner:

	Chapter 20	Amount	FTE
one-time	s. 20.566 (1) (a)	$75,200 annual
FY00	s. 20.566 (1) (a)	$74,300	8.0
FY01	s. 20.566 (1) (a)	$302,700	8.0

If you have any questions regarding these administrative costs, please contact Jackie Wipperfurth at 266-9513.
